

Bible Conference

March 20–25, 2005

Bob Jones University

“Come...apart...and rest a while” (Mark 6:31). This was the Lord’s prescription for His weary servants who had been busy in the Gospel work.

This year’s Bible Conference will be a “coming apart” time for those of His people who have been busy for Him. There will be the refreshing waters of God’s Word to nourish and soothe us. There will also be refreshing fellowship with friends and fellow believers.

This is what those of us here at the University, who have labored for Him throughout the school year, need—it is what His people everywhere need. The good preaching of some of the Lord’s choicest servants and the most heavenly music this side of Heaven will do us all good.

Why not make your plans to join us? Springtime may likely be in the air, but it is certain that the Conference will bring springtime to the Christ-loving heart.

Don’t miss it!

Sincerely yours,

Bob Jones III
